REPORT of the

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20535

To: SAC, Milwaukee (166-685)

Date: December 27, 1974
FBI File No. 166-6104
Lab. No. D-741210134 HO

Re: JOHN GASBARRI, aka et al.;
ITAR - PROSTITUTION;
ITSP; PERJURY; WSTA;
UPRF

Specimens received 12/9/74

Qc1 Photocopy of North Central Airlines, Inc. Miscellaneous Charges Order dated 8/12/73, signed "Jack Casbarri"

Kc1 Three photocopies of papers for Application for Alcoholic Beverage License and photocopy of Interrogation; Advice of Rights form bearing the known signatures of JACK GASBARRI

Result of examination:

It was not determined whether the Jack Casbarri signature on Qc1 was written by JACK GASBARRI, Kc1 because of the presence of handwriting characteristics that could not be explained on the basis of the photocopies submitted for comparison. Significant handwriting characteristics were noted which suggest the advisability of obtaining additional known handwriting from GASBARRI or additional undictated signatures known to have been prepared by him for further comparison. The original documents represented by Qc1 and Kc1 would be essential and if submitted with additional dictated signatures may permit positive identification of the signature on Qc1.

The evidence you submitted is returned herewith. Photographs have been retained.

On December 23, 1974, Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] Eastern District of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky, advised that appeal of subject [redacted] regarding his conviction in United States District Court, Covington, Kentucky, on October 30, 1974, has been heard before the 6th Circuit Court of Appeals, Cincinnati, Ohio. By communication dated December 5, 1974, the Milwaukee Division submitted to the FBI Laboratory a photocopy of North Central Airlines Miscellaneous Charges Order dated August 12, 1973 which had been obtained by the Minneapolis Division of the FBI. Additional documents with the known signature of JACK GASBARRI were obtained and submitted for comparison purposes and the laboratory was requested to determine if the signature on the Miscellaneous Charges Order was that of JACK GASBARRI.

By communication dated 12/27/74, the FBI Laboratory advised as follows:

This matter was reviewed in some detail with Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] (supra). [redacted] advised that he did not desire an attempt to obtain signature samples from GASBARRI in that he did not intend to subpoena the original Miscellaneous Charges Order since he believes evidence against GASBARRI is already strong enough without testimony from a document expert that GASBARRI's signature does appear on the Miscellaneous Charges Order. [redacted] indicated, however, that he wished North Central Airlines to be aware of the fact that a subpoena for documents which have been the subject of previous interviews conducted by the FBI will probably be issued in the near future.

[redacted] North Central Airlines (NCA), was contacted at his place of employment, the Gogebic County Airport, where he furnished the following information: b6 b7C

[redacted] examined xeroxed copies of NCA tickets numbered 0324200759777 and 0324200652950, NCA miscellaneous charges order number 0324010001664, and related teletype messages.

[redacted] advised that the initials [redacted] appearing on the teletype messages indicate that he is the individual who sent those messages. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that while he cannot specifically recall the airline tickets or the miscellaneous charges order, he recognizes the printing on the miscellaneous charges order dated August 12, 1973 as his own.

[redacted] indicated that the signature in the block of the miscellaneous charges order titled Endorsements appears to be that of JACK GASBARRI. [redacted] pointed out that he was not familiar enough with GASBARRI's signature to state with certainty that the signature in the block was actually that of GASBARRI's. [redacted] knows GASBARRI on sight, is aware of the fact that GASBARRI's nickname is JACKPOT, and that GASBARRI runs the Show Bar in Hurley, Wisconsin. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that it is not unusual for GASBARRI to prepay for airline tickets. GASBARRI does not, however, do this on any regular basis like once a month. [redacted] indicated that it is always his policy to have the person who pays for a prepaid airline ticket to sign the block entitled Endorsements on the miscellaneous charges order. b6 b7C

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 3/18/69

JOHN D. NASH, [redacted] Michigan, mailing address [redacted] Michigan, was interviewed at his place of employment, Diamond Reo Truck, Division White Motor Corporation, 1331 South Washington Avenue, Lansing, Michigan, where he advised as follows: b6 b7C

NASH stated during the week of October 7, 1968, on a Monday or Tuesday night, he and a neighbor, TOM BROWN, [redacted] [redacted] Michigan, were in a night club at Hurley, Wisconsin. NASH stated he felt that this club was the Club 13. b6 b7C

NASH stated he talked to the "M.C.", a short heavy set white male and bought him a drink. He stated there was a strip show at the club. He further advised that when he and BROWN seated themselves at the bar that three girls that were located at the end of the bar came down to where he and BROWN were and began talking to them. He stated one of the girls was a Negro female, 5'6" tall, age 25 - 28 years, whose name he does not recall. He stated a second girl was a white female, 28 - 30 years of age, 5'6" tall and was a red head. He stated that these two girls later got in a fight and the white female ended up with a broken finger. He stated the third girl was a platinum blonde, name unrecalled, taller than the other two, approximately 5'9", nice looking and was in her early 30s.

NASH stated that from the conversation of the girls they indicated that they were soliciting dates of prostitution.

NASH then stated that he is not sure if this was Club 13 or not as he had visited three clubs that night. He stated that the more he thinks about it the above did not pertain to the Club 13. He stated he does not recall the name of the club which he described above, however, it is located on the right side as you cross the bridge from Ironwood to Hurley.

NASH stated that he also entered a bar located on the left that was owned by a woman whose name he is unable to recall.

He stated that he talked to this woman who indicated that she had a son in the Navy and she asked if we were looking for girls and if we wanted to go upstairs. He described this woman as a heavy set white female, 5'5" tall, age 40 - 48 years, weighing 140 pounds, hair unrecalled, and who had a "foul" mouth. NASH stated that he was in this bar only once and he does not recall if this was the last time, 1968, or the year before. He stated for the past three years he and a group have gone to the area around Hurley, Wisconsin, to hunt bears.

NASH stated that he did not see any of the girls and the woman indicated that they were upstairs. He stated that she did not quote a price of the tricks, stating that this was left to the girls as they arrange for the price.

NASH stated that he also recalls that this particular bar had a heavy set bartender who was a white male, approximately 40 years of age, weighed 230 pounds and was 6' tall. He stated he could not recall the name of the bartender.

NASH stated that he felt that the above club where the woman mentioned that she had a son in the Navy was the Club 13, however, he is not sure. He stated that he has never entered the bar for the purpose of obtaining a date with a prostitute.

NASH stated that he was in Hurley, Wisconsin, with a group of 8 or 9 fellows. He stated that the individuals were TERRY CRAFT and his sons, and a JACK GUARD, who all reside in Mason, Michigan. He further advised that CRAFT and GUARD are both employed at the Oldsmobile Division of General Motors Corporation. He stated that also along on the trip was a CISCO CRAFT, who is employed at the Oldsmobile Division and is residing at [redacted] Michigan. b6 b7C

NASH stated that he knows that none of the people in his group dated a prostitute and he doubts if some of the group actually entered the club 13. He stated to his knowledge he only knows of one individual who has dated one of the girls at one of the clubs before and this was a year ago when BILL CARL, an employee of Consumer's Power Company and resides in Mason, Michigan.

NASH stated that he has been employed at Diamond Reo for approximately ten years and he is a General Foreman and Material Control and is married. He stated he was bor [redacted] b6 b7C [redacted] Michigan.
